

The Tucson Quilters Guild presents its 34th Annual Quilt Show, Quilt Fiesta, January 20-22, 2012

TUCSON QUILT FIESTA!

2012

The Tucson Quilters Guild, founded in 1976 by Carolyn O'Bagy Davis, had 10 members. Membership has increased continually over the last 34 years, hovering around 700 members for the last few years. The Arizona Quilters Hall of Fame inducted Carolyn in 2010 for her work in recording Arizona Quilting history. In a single year, the Tucson Quilters Guild outreach programs have donated 461 quilts, taught 90 young people to quilt, donated 82 dressed teddy bears, and donated 1,260 placemats.

We meet at the St. Frances Cabrini Church, 3201 East Presidio, Tucson, Arizona. The church is located one block south of Ft. Lowell and one block east of Country Club. Meetings are the second Wednesday of the month at 9:30 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. the Tuesday night before the Wednesday meeting. Both meetings have the same speaker and events. Speakers/teachers for 2011 include Peggy Martin, Sue Benner, Suzanne Marshall, David Taylor, Sue Spargo, Pam Allen, and Cindy Needham

Everyone is welcome to join our guild; all you need is an interest in quilting or quilts in general. The membership year is March to February, so joining at the Quilt Fiesta provides an extra month of membership free. Members must join by the October meeting in order to be able to hang a quilt in the show.

For additional information on joining, please access our website www.tucsonquiltersguild.com or email the membership director at membership@TucsonQuiltersGuild.com
